Conversation

 James: Would you like to go swimming with me?

 Grace: No, I don't think so.

 James : Why not?

 Grace: I'm afraid I might drown.

 James: Don't worry! You won't drown.

 Grace: Are you sure?

 James: I'm very sure.

 Grace: Okay. I'll go swimming with you.

Comprehension

1. What is James going to do?
2. Why doesn't Grace want to go with James at first?
3. Will Grace go swimming with James?

Grammar

When we use “might” it shows that we are not sure if it will happen.

For example,

1. He might come today, but I am not sure.
2. If you go hiking, you might see wild animals.
