

5 mins

Where are they? Why do people come here?

A photograph showing a young woman with dark brown hair and a pregnant belly, wearing a striped long-sleeved top, sitting at a desk and talking to a female doctor. The doctor, with blonde hair and a warm smile, is wearing a white medical coat and is also gesturing while speaking. They are in a clinical office setting with shelves in the background.

Talking about Health Problems

Goals for Today

1 min

Word

Be able to use words related to health problems.

Sentence

Know what you can say when others feel ill.

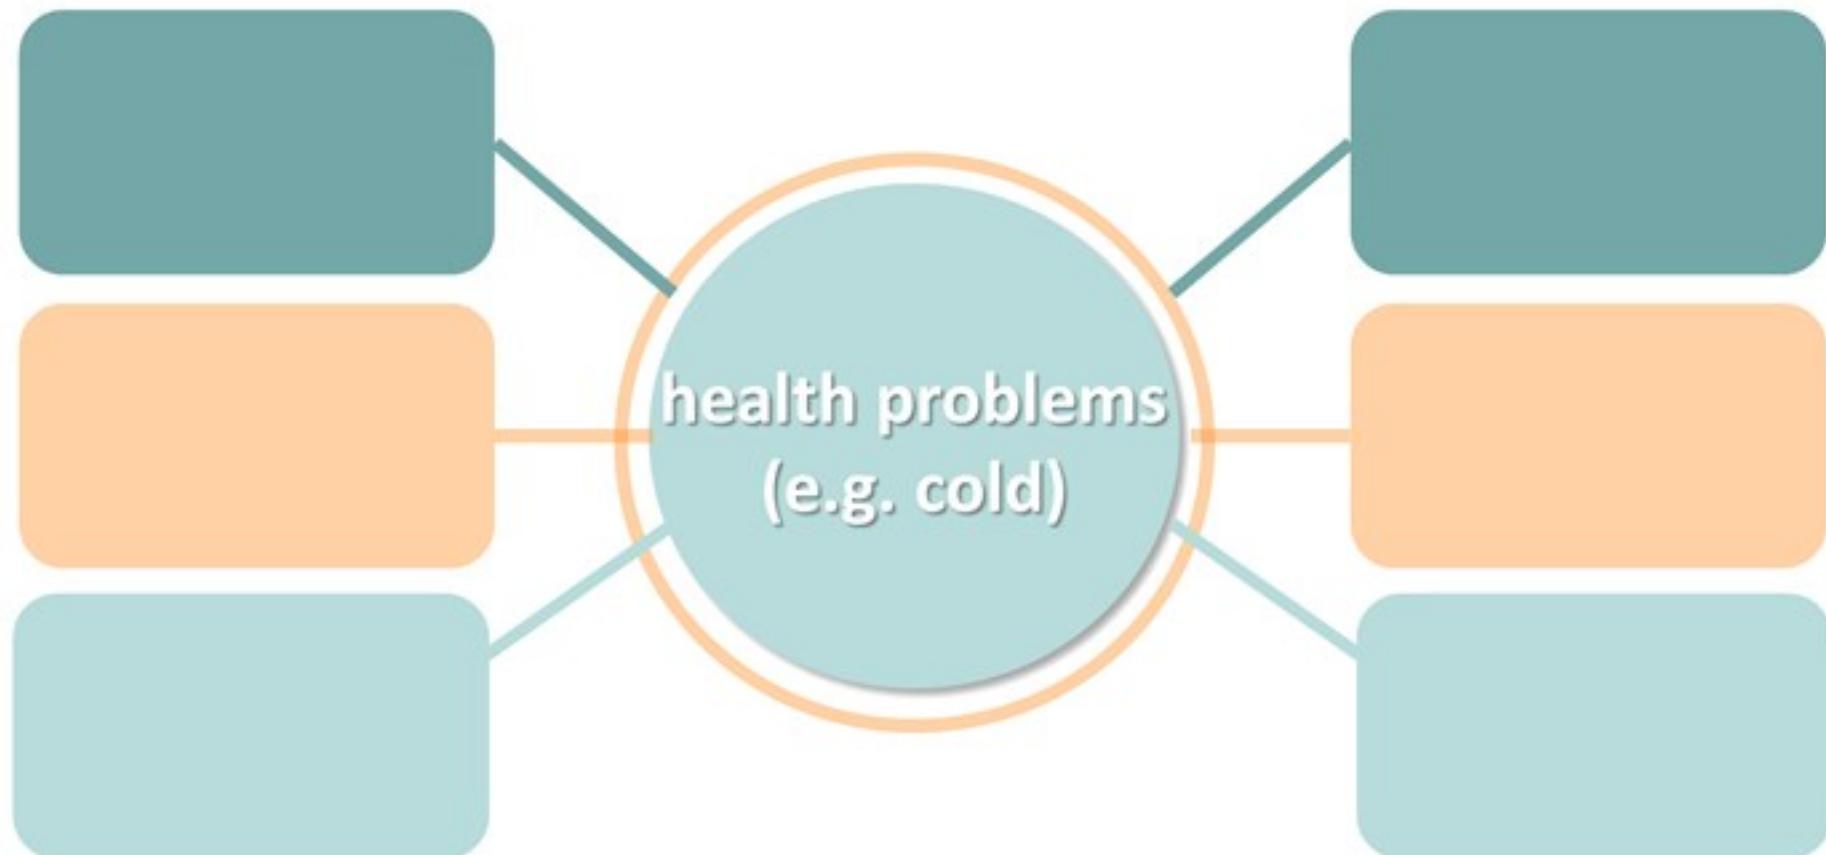

Dialogue

Be able to share your experiences related to health problems.

Word Game

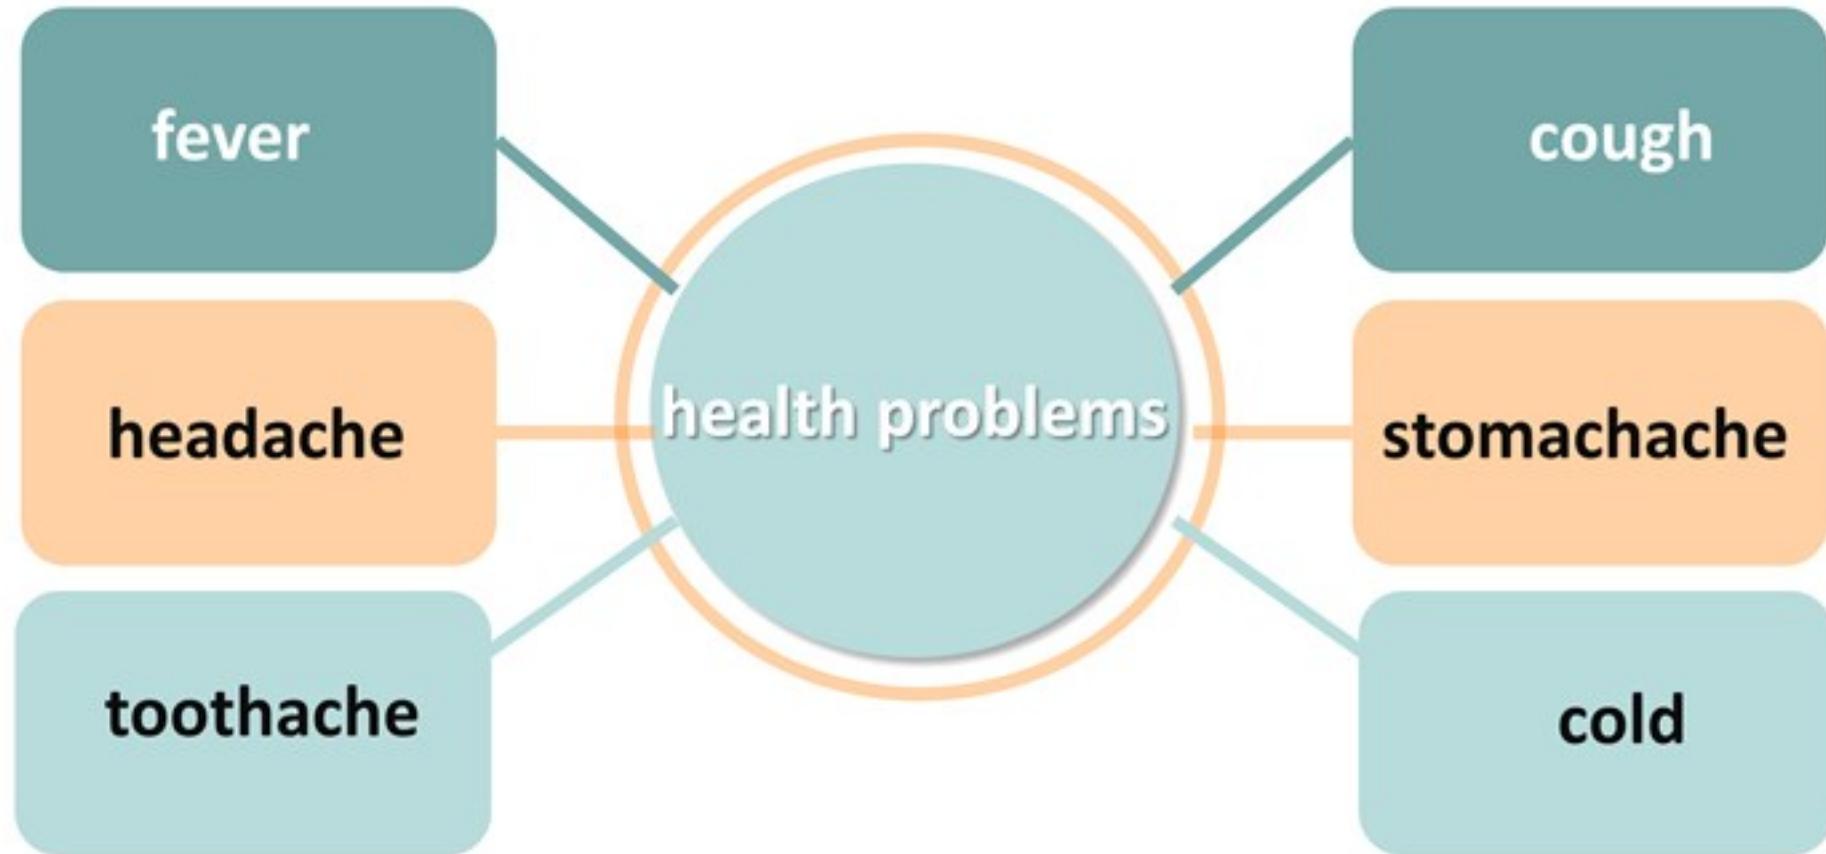

What common health problems do you know?

Word Game

Here are some common health problems.

Choose a problem you know. Have you ever had this health problem before?

Vocabulary Words

3 mins

Match the words with the pictures.

1. cough
2. fever
3. toothache
4. headache
5. cold
6. stomachache

Vocabulary Words: Practice

Do you think these health problems are serious, not serious, or very serious?

stomachache toothache headache cold cough fever

Very serious

Serious

Not serious

Dialogue

Leah is talking to Sarah. Find all the words related to health problems.

Are you all right, Sarah?
You don't look good.

You poor thing. What's the matter?

Actually, I feel ill.

I've got a stomachache. And I didn't eat anything today.

Poor you. Have some soup and take some medicine.
You'll feel better soon.

Dialogue: Practice

3 mins

1. What is Sarah's health problem?
2. What else can she do to feel better?

Expressions

Asking about people's health:

Are you all right?

What's the matter?

What you can say when somebody is feeling ill:

You poor thing.

Poor you.

Have you ever said/heard these sentences?

Role Play

Put the sentences in order. Then act it out!

You poor thing. What's the matter?

Poor you. Eat something soft and take some pills.
You'll get better soon.

Are you all right, Sarah?
You don't look good.

Actually, I feel ill.

I've got a stomachache. And I didn't eat anything today.

Free Talk

5 mins

1. What health problem have you had before?
2. What did you do to get well?
3. Can you say “Poor you” on other occasions?

Summary

Word

I can use words related to health problems.

Sentence

I know what I can say when someone is feeling ill.

Dialogue

I can talk about health problems.

Thank you

iTutorGroup

Don't forget to leave your feedback for this session.

See you next time!

Practice makes perfect.